

december events

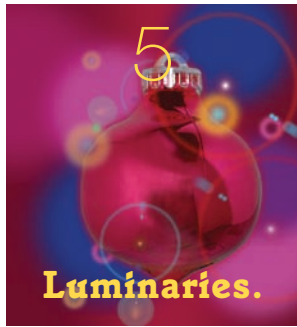

December is "Hi Neighbor" Month

Animal Party! Celebrate Christmas early with animals at the zoo. Watch as they receive their gifts, and put in a word with Santa for your own wishes. Call 916-351-3527 or visit folsomzoo.com for more information and the animals' wish lists.

13

7-30 A Winnie-the-Pooh Christmas Tail.

Presented by Stage Nine as part of their Family Series, this Christmas story is transformed into an enchanting musical involving all of your favorite characters. Performances are Saturdays and Sundays at 1:30 p.m. Call 916-353-1001 or visit stagenine-folsom.com for more information.

See Sutter Street glow in the light of hundreds of luminaries. Kick off the season at 6 p.m. with holiday cheer, music and the annual tree lighting.

6 Center Stage Dance Academy Holiday

Benefit. Enjoy The Dancers' Gift, while donating to a good cause. Shows start at 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. at Golden Hills School in El Dorado Hills. Tickets are $12 at the door, $5 for ages 10 and under. All proceeds will benefit ovarian cancer research. For more information, call 916-939-7222.

13

Pony Express Holiday Ride. Volunteers with the National Pony Express Association will offer a free holiday ride from Folsom to Pollock Pines. Meet the riders and horses and celebrate "Day of the Horse." For details, call 916-985-2707.

20-21

FOLSOM LAKE SYMPHONY HOLIDAY CONCERT

The Folsom Lake Civic Ballet and The Valley Choral Society guest conductor, Paul Allen, will direct the orchestra and chorus in a variety of holiday classics. Visit folsomsymphony.com or call 916-983-4277 for tickets or more information.

5-7

The Rhythms of Christmas, A City Celebration.

Stages of Northern California Performing Arts and Sound Out tap company present their annual holiday show at Whitney High School in Rocklin. Tickets are $15 for Adults; $12 for children and students. For more information, call 916-355-8080 or visit stages-performingarts.org.

25
Christmas Day

21
HANUKKAH BEGINS AT SUNDOWN

26
Kwanzaa begins

31
New Year's Eve

19

Annual Santa Run with local El Dorado Hills Firefighters.

Meet Santa and support the local Toys for Tots by bringing a toy to donate. Enjoy cookies and hot chocolate in the Steven Young Amphitheater in Town Center. 5 - 8:30 p.m. For more information, visit eldoradohillstowncenter.com.

Don't miss our Special

Holiday Performance

Folsom
SYMPHONY LAKE
ORCHESTRA

BRINGING BEAUTIFUL
MUSIC TO THE FOLSOM LAKE REGION

The Folsom Lake Symphony
Orchestra with the Folsom
Lake Civic Ballet and the Valley Choral Society present selections from the Nutcracker Ballet and other holiday favorites.

Jill Solberg Performing Arts
Theater at Folsom
High School.

Saturday
December 20
at 7:30pm

Sunday Matinee
December 21
at 3pm

Upcoming shows...

A Romantic Night
in Old Vienna

Saturday, February 14

Spring Concert

Saturday, April 4

Great Treasures
From the Opera

Saturday, May 4

For more info please visit
FolsomSymphony.com
Ticket Line 916-983-4277

styleagenda

December 6 – Holiday Craft Fair. The Folsom History Museum will host an outside sales table with unique gifts. Handmade crafts supplied by a variety of vendors will be available on Sutter Street from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. For more information, visit folsomhistorymuseum.org.

MORE EVENTS IN FOLSOM

Through December 28 – Holiday in the Hills. Come see Stage Nine's annual holiday production set in Historic Folsom on Fridays and Saturdays at 8 p.m., or Sundays at 4 p.m. Call 916-353-1001 or visit stageninefolsom.com.

MORE EVENTS IN EL DORADO HILLS

December 6, 13 & 20 – Holiday Entertainment in Town Center. Get in the spirit with a variety of holiday entertainers including jugglers, elves and carolers. Noon to 2 p.m. For more information, visit eldoradohillstowncenter.com.

EVENTS IN SURROUNDING AREAS

Through December 19 – Annual Cornish Christmas Celebration. Every Friday until Christmas, the historic mining town of Grass Valley celebrates the holiday in a charming, old-fashioned style. Mill and W. Main streets close off to motor traffic. Festivities run from 6 to 9 p.m. For more information, visit ncgold.com or call 530-272-8315.

December 3-21 – Victorian Christmas. Nevada City hosts its own traditional Christmas street fair celebration on Wednesday evenings from 6 to 9 p.m., and Sunday afternoons from 1:30 to 6 p.m. Victorian costumes, singers, bagpipers and a live Nativity scene are among the popular attractions.

December 3-23 – Christmas Train. Sacramento RiverTrain's Christmas Train takes kids on a journey complete with Santa, elves, storytellers, musicians, hot cocoa and cookies. Pajamas are welcome attire. Be sure to get tickets in advance for one of the following dates: December 3, 6-7, 10, 13-14, 15-23. Tickets are $24 for children and $31 for adults. Call 916-532-7899 for more information.

December 9 – Sierra Wildlife Rescue Class. Learn advanced first aid and care for wildlife with hands-on training from Dr. Ricardo Delgadillo of Crossroads Veterinary Hospital in Diamond Springs. The class is free for SWR members; a $5 donation is appreciated from the public. For more information or to attend, call 530-621-2650.

December 14 – Flamenco Vivo Carlota Santana. The Mondavi Center presents "an infectiously joyful celebration of music and dance," according to The New York Times. This Hispanic holiday tradition honors Christmas and the New Year. Visit mondaviarts.org for tickets and more information.

December 21 – A Chanticleer Christmas. Check out the Mondavi Center's Christmas concert blend of traditional carols at Jackson Hall on the UC Davis campus. Visit mondaviarts.org for tickets and more information.

Do you have an event to share with the community? Send the details to info@sierrastyle.com.